

Open Faculty Position (No.279), Graduate School of Engineering, University of Hyogo

1. Open position: Professor

(University of Hyogo is actively promoting diversity and inclusion. We welcome applications from all qualified candidates regardless of gender, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, disability and other diverse backgrounds. We explicitly invite applicants qualified in research and education to apply.)

2. Department: Engineering (Field of Mechanical Engineering)

In April 2026, the Graduate School of Engineering will change from the current six majors to one major and six fields of study.

3. Research and teaching field: Mechanics of Materials / Material of Mechanical Engineering

We are seeking a diverse range of individuals who can contribute to solving societal challenges by advancing and systematizing "manufacturing technologies" based on cutting-edge research. Specifically, we invite applications from researchers in the fields of mechanical materials and materials processing, machining science, production engineering, design engineering, mechanical components, tribology, and nano/micro technology. The materials involved are not limited to metals but include biomaterials and others. Research methodologies encompass experimental studies, analysis, and simulation techniques. We seek individuals who are passionate about leading education and research toward the development of "new mechanical engineering" based on the above research areas.
